Comenius
“Plurilingualism: Identity and Diversity. An integrated language programme.”

12 - 14 January 2011

Coordinators: Manon HÜBSCHER

Working Language: English

Objectives
The training session will foster the exchange of different educational, methodological and linguistic points of view and will focus on following subjects:
- plurilingualism;
- languages and European citizenship, interculturality, identity and diversity;
- action-based approach in language learning and teaching, key competencies and active methodologies;
- PEL and Portfolio;
- Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL);
- support websites for language learning and teaching and the SAEL practical guide;
- eTwinning portal and its cooperation with the Comenius programme (Com’eT).

Participants will learn how to make use of different initiatives and innovative tools in their teaching and will be able to use and to share this experience in their respective countries and schools.

Content and modalities of the training session
The training course will combine theoretical contents and concrete examples of teachers’ practice and activities related to their project. It will include a plenary session about Languages in Europe, three thematic workshops and school visits (primary and secondary levels). In order to optimise the meeting, time will be allocated to the exchange of best practice and the writing of a report on the visit.

The working language will be English.
